WISEGUY MADE COMICS IS PROUD TO RELEASE
THE KICKSTARTER
CAMPAIGN FOR A NEW SUPERHERO!

New York, NY (July 1, 2013) – Wiseguy Made Comics (WMP) proudly announces its Kickstarter campaign for the independent comic “Cain the Conqueror” beginning on July 1st 2013 and going through July 31st.

The heir to the throne of a historic clan of assassins comes home to find his father murdered, his mother paralyzed, and his sister kidnapped. His partner betrays him and Cain must use every one of his unique powers in order to while protecting his city.

Cain is a significant and unique superhero that transcends all known heroes to this point. He was developed character first, powers second, making for rich, deep, connecting story-lines. He is also the springboard for the other heroes in a larger connected world full of conspiracies, Sci-Fi action, other worldly dimensions, and characters to fall in love with, hate, and fear.

The Kickstarter is to raise the funds to finish inking, coloring, and publishing the comic. After the Kickstarter has been funded it will take about two months to get all of that completed and then the comic will be on shelves all over the country and available online. It will be an ongoing series with six issues in every set.

Cain will be very easy to locate on Kickstarter, just type in Cain The Conqueror and he will pop right up starting July 1st.

Cain can be seen in all of his current availability at www.facebook.com/caintheconqueror.
